If it succeeds in constructing its road, will be the first opponent of the West Jersey Company for the Summer traffic to Cape May and Atlantic City.

Supt. Stubbs, of the West Jersey Company, said this morning that his men were master of the situation, and that they proposed to hold the fort.

Meantime the South Jersey men are deeping in the background, but there is likely to be a clash between the rival forces at any time.

The South Jersey Raliroad people have commenced the work of laying their tracks at this place, and to-day expect to be at the point where they intend to cross the West Jersey tracks. They say they will cross the tracks at all hazards. The West Jersey people are at the disputed point, and are prepared to give the South Jersey people a warm reception when the latter try to cross the Company's tracks. Indications are that there will be trouble this afternoon.

The West Jersey and South Jersey people are armed, and it is likely that bloodshed will follow in the event of the South Jersey people are armed, and it is likely that bloodshed will follow in the event of the South Jersey people attempting to cross the West Jersey tracks.
